GOVERNMENT’S RESPONSE TO COUNSEL’S
MOTION TO WITHDRAW DUE TO CONFLICT OF INTEREST

The United States, by and through its undersigned counsel, is unable to take a position on the motion to withdraw filed by defense counsel because counsel is not at liberty to discuss the factual basis for the motion with the Government. In the interest of resolving this matter as quickly as possible, should the Court find it appropriate, the Government does not object to the Court’s resolving the motion after receiving any under seal, ex parte representation concerning its basis that defense counsel may submit to it, and, if warranted, assigning new counsel to the defendant, all without hearing further from the Government.

Respectfully submitted,

Dated: October 8, 2010
